

Hi-winds 21 fun has begun at the Fisherman's Huts!

Organizers of this year's Aruba Hi-Winds reports one of the largest inscriptions the annual competition has seen for some time, and the widest variety of participants. Amateur wind and kite surfers from as far as Hungary and Portugal and in a wide range of ages have traveled to Aruba's shores to experience our famous breezes over calm, clear azure waters.

After a welcoming party at Dunkin' Donuts, windsurfers woke to a perfect day of excellent winds for the first qualifying rounds. Conditions provided a dream day of windsurfing, and Little Caesars' along with Red Bull provided a fine lunch on the beach as they paused to refresh and refuel before the afternoon races. Nearly 120 participants provided bright spots of color on the turquoise waters with their wind sails and neon orange gear.

The end of the day saw first place Ryan Lampe of Aruba, Arturo Soliano of Bonaire, and Ricardo Albisu of Argentina way ahead of the pack in Men's, Juniors', and Masters' Slalom, respectively. The first place finish in the Women's Slalom was a close finish between Janet Ziekenoppasser of Aruba and Hilde Tuinbeek of Curacao. Aruban competitors, accustomed to the strong winds and coastline are leading in most categories, except for Kitesurfing, which has Jacky Rabinovich of Spain in first place after day one, and Super and Big Kids Youp Schmit and Rodderick Boekhoudt of Bonaire leading in those divisions.

Saturday and Sunday will be exciting days at Fisherman's Huts, with Kitesurfing and Freestyle competitions, which promise amazing stunts, which are particularly fun to watch. All spectators are welcome and invited to join the party during after-surfing "Happy Hours" sponsored by Amstel Bright. Popular local bands will fuel the fun; "The Islanders" on Saturday and "Sonic Lab" on Sunday. There will be beach volleyball and fashion shows by BULA as well.

Take a walk up the beach and join the party this weekend at Fisherman's Huts!
